Tom Tubbs has over 35 years of experience in the insurance and financial services industry and has served as CEO of the Tubbs Group in Akron for the past 15 years. He also has a long-time association with the Tubbs Agency in Medina, which his grandfather, Harold A. Tubbs, founded in 1921.

Tom did his undergraduate work at Ohio State University and has spent much of his time in the financial services industry working with corporations in the development of specialized programs to assist them in attracting, retaining, and motivating top-performing executives. He is a past officer and director of the Ohio Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors, served as a director of the Medina Farmers' Exchange from 1969 to 1988, and is also a past member of the Board of Directors of the Weymouth Land Company.

He also was a co-founder of one of Ohio's most successful community banks, and serves on its compensation, audit and loan committees.
